^{& smiled} a bowed^{up} head. I recognized him. This was better than cigarette. So read his last 2 papers in the Centuries.

This matter will bring down the glaciers on Mt. Washington & Ade will say that

Brooklyn climate is a great deal warmer than Boston. Give best love to Mother - I shall go out next Sunday probably.

I write only to assure you of my perfect well-being & hope to hear that all goes well with you.
Your loving A
Wendell

I got on famously my Sarah slept 8 or 9 nights & sewing work by day - The nose boy is all whole again & will go on steadily to the end. A card from Ade who is in St. Mark's place (or St. M. Ave.) called this P.M. at Mrs. Talbot's in acknowl.
of an invitation from her to the round-table club. Wore my winter coat as the next warmest thing to my cloak.
Looked shabby - Saw there so-called Prof. Harris - thought he was likely to be a humbug.
Crossing the common met Mr. Cable who knew me
